

Price is Right

Come on down! Bring the all of the fun and excitement of one of TV's most popular game shows to your baby shower with this hilarious take on a classic price match game.

How to play:

- 1 Before your guests arrive, go online or use a catalogue to find some typical items associated with babies: a pack of diapers, a crib, pushchair etc... And prepare a gift for the winner.
- 2 Note down some of the details including the price, and either print out the pictures or save them so you can display them on your TV.
- 3 Describe each item to your guests while showing them the image and have them note down their estimated price.
- 4 For each item, the guests with the nearest price to the correct retail value without going over wins a prize.
